THE BLOOD OF THE DEAD

In case you were unaware, this is a Bleach Manga

2002.4.25 あふらあけ

Well, I've decided to take a page out of Saha's book and use these kind of pages as a rant space. This is the 3rd manga I've released for free with YDKJMF, mainly because DW won't accept loli doujin anymore. Ironically, I've finished a couple trances for DW over a month ago, but they still haven't been released because the editor I assigned those to likes to go AWOL for weeks on end. As to why I did another free Doujin, well... I've lately become engrossed in Bleach, watching 65 episodes in four days, and Rukia has to be the cutest anime character I've ever seen. Given the last two pages of this doujin, it's unthinkable that I **wouldn't** translate it =P

In other news, I've started using a watermark, and will go back and mark earlier releases. It should be small enough to avoid obscuring any of the doujin itself, and will hopefully stop people from ripping off my work in the future.

YDK impressed me with this doujin; his photoshop skills seem to have increased a lot. Look forward to seeing his name with mine often in future =)
